Report De-Mackensen Continues Retreat In Dobrudja—Force Said to Be Demoralized By Reverses, Heavy Losses, Disease and Lack of Reinforcements

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, Nov. 13.—Today's announcement by London that the British have opened an attack on both sides of the Ancre river in Northern France indicates the possibility than an important new offensive has begun. The Ancre river, or brook, approximately bounds on the south the sharp salient made in the German lines by the prolonged Franco-British offensive in the Somme region. Apparently General Haig's troops are now attacking this salient from both sides.

In a broad sense this salient extends some 18 miles northward to Arras, but whether the new British operation covers its entire breadth or an attempt is under way to crush in the southern section is not made plain by the official statement.

Reports from Petrograd, so far unconfirmed by official advice, declare that Field Marshal von Mackensen is continuing his retreat in Dobrudja under disastrous conditions. It is stated that the Russians have succeeded in crossing the Danube at two points south of Tchernavoda which if correct would mean that Von Mackensen's army was being taken in the rear or that he had been forced back from the Constantza-Tchernavoda railway line. His force is said to be demoralized from reverses, heavy losses, disease and lack of reinforcements. The Black sea port of Constantza is reported again under fire of the Russian fleet.

The recent Serbian victory in Macedonia appears from the entente accounts to have been a brilliant one. Paris reports that the Germans and Bulgarians were pushed back nearly two miles in the Cerna river region southeast of Monastir in a two day battle and that they lost 1,000 men in prisoners. Unofficial accounts announce an additional Serbian success to the north along the bend of the river, carrying the closing-in movement of Monastir still further. Official Berlin today reports that entente artillery was yesterday shelling Tchernavoda in Dobrudja from across the Danube.

The entente progress continues on the Transylvanian border of Rumania, the German statement declares. Three towns were captured, numerous attacks by the Rumanians were repulsed and more than 1,000 prisoners were taken.

The French, according to Berlin, opened an offensive yesterday in Upper Alsace but were defeated in their attempt to advance. German artillery, it is declared, broke up entente efforts to gain ground in the Somme area.

Today's German official statement besides indicating that Field Marshal von Mackensen is still in possession of the Tchernavoda-Constantza railway line, declares that hostile forces advancing down the Danube in Dobrudja were driven back.

Regarding the fighting along the Transylvanian border Bucharest reports the Rumanians as holding their own in an all-day battle northeast of Campulung, but being compelled to retire under pressure on the right bank of the river Alt.

Swift German torpedo craft made a raid into the gulf of Finland along the water route to Petrograd Friday, last, and bombarded the coast at an unnamed point on the short time.

Today's German official statement today announcing this raid, says that a majority of the raiders which was led by a 36-knot torpedo craft were sunk. There were a dozen killed or wounded in the bombardment, according to the statement.

ATTEMPT FAILED

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Berlin, Nov. 12.—Wireless to Sarville.—Attempts of entente troops to advance between the Ancre and the Somme yesterday were broken up by German artillery fire, the war office announced today.

In Upper Alsace the French took the offensive but their efforts to advance failed completely. On the Transylvanian front yesterday, Austro-German troops captured three towns and repulsed numerous Rumanian attacks the war office announced. More than 1,000 prisoners were taken.

LABOR

SECY. LANE CHIEF SPEAKER

Before American Federation of Labor at Baltimore—Says 275 Out of 300 Disputes Adjusted to the Satisfaction of Both Sides—Gompers Says Labor Prevented War

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Baltimore, Md., Nov. 13.—Secretary of Labor Wm. B. Wilson delivered the principal address at the opening here today of the 36th annual convention of the American federation of labor. He said he was present for the purpose of showing which side he was on.

"The greatest of all the functions of the department of labor," said the secretary, "is that of having the hopes, aspirations and philosophy of the wage workers of our country come into the councils of the President of the United States."

Of the 300 disputes between labor and capital that had come before his department, Mr. Wilson said 275 had been settled in a manner satisfactory to both sides, and before a strike had been reached.

President Samuel Gompers, in an address, declared that in the relations between the United States and Mexico the American Federation of Labor had a part in counseling the Mexican working men so that they might exert a steady influence upon the people and government of Mexico, "an dhat the exploiters of Wall street should not drive us into passion and anger and compel a conflict with our much weaker sister republic of Mexico."

This statement evoked long continued applause. The passage of congress by the seamen act and the Clayton anti-trust law were vindicated by the people of the United States last Tuesday, Mr. Gompers declared.

POSTAL CLERKS WORK OVERTIME; PROTEST FILED

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, Nov. 13.—In a letter to President Wilson made public today, Thomas F. Flaherty, secretary and treasurer of the National Federation of Postoffice Clerks, entered a protest against working postoffice clerks more than eight hours a day. The letter calls the attention of the president to the fact that a law passed by congress provided that clerks shall not be required to work more than eight hours a day within 10 hours and for working in excess of this, are to be paid overtime in proportion to their salaries.

"This law contemplated that only in emergencies should more than eight hours be required," Mr. Flaherty said in his letter. "Yet, in many of the large postoffices, notably Chicago, Boston and Cleveland, the clerks are forced daily and nightly to work 10, 11 and even 12 hours."

COLD WEATHER IS HEADED THIS WAY; ZERO IN WYOMING

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Nov. 13.—A cold wave, with temperatures at various places lower than ever before recorded in November, overspread the region west of the Mississippi river today and will move eastward to the Atlantic coast.

Sheridan, Wyo., reported the lowest temperature with 26 degrees below zero. Lander, Wyo., 24 below zero and Cheyenne, Wyo., Yellowstone National Park and Havre, Mont., 20 degrees below zero. The intense cold reaches Southward into the interior of Texas. Weather bureau officials today said the cold wave perhaps would diminish in intensity as it moved eastward. Its movement and intensity was somewhat dependent, they pointed out, upon the West Indian disturbance which was reported this morning in the Caribbean sea in the vicinity of Swan Island. That storm was apparently increasing in intensity and will move northward, probably attended by strong winds reaching gale force during the next 36 hours over the east portion of the gulf of Mexico and South Florida.

Rain and snow probably will precede the cold wave in the north Atlantic states, Great Lakes region, Ohio Valley and Tennessee. The cold will strike Ohio Valley, Tennessee and the gulf states tonight and the Atlantic states, except South Florida, on Tuesday. Cold wave warnings have been issued for Mississippi, Alabama, Tennessee, Kentucky, Indiana and Southeast Ohio.

STRIKE CAUSES CAR REVENUE TO DROP A MILLION

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, Nov. 13.—During September and October, the strike of street railway employees caused the passenger revenue of the New York City and County Rapid Transit Corporation to drop $1,947,124 below the amount derived from this source in the same period of 1915, according to a statement published by the company today. There were 22,894,915 fares carried during the period then and during the same two months of a year ago. A large proportion of this number used the subway and elevated lines, which showed an increase in receipts of nearly $1,000,000.

Official Despatches to German Embassy Believed to Be Missing

CHARGE THEM TO GRAVES

Arrested On Complaint of Von Bernstorff Who Says He Attempted to Extort Money From Countess—Mailed From Germany In September—Graves Offers Counter Charges

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Nov. 13.—The German embassy has reason to believe that a number of highly confidential official despatches, at present missing, were in the packet from which Karl Armgard Graves extracted letters he is charged with having used in an alleged attempt to obtain $3,000 from Countess von Bernstorff, wife of the German ambassador.

The nature of the despatches is unknown. The German government has been sent all available information regarding the exact contents and investigation, it is expected, will immediately be made in Berlin with a view of ascertaining, what, if any secret papers are missing, as well as the identity of the messenger from whom Graves secured the letters. It was learned today that the packet from which Graves obtained the letters addressed to Countess von Bernstorff had been officially sealed by the German foreign office and were started on their way to the United States sometime between the ninth and fifteenth of September. All details of the secret code told by Graves last night in New York were ridiculed today at the German embassy.

Graves yesterday made counter-charges against his accusers.

"My rooms were entered through a window," declared Dr. Graves at his home in West Sixty-ninth street yesterday. "The place was ransacked and papers taken. Among them were two half sheets of decoded letters. Fortunately, I had not left the originals in my apartment, so my only loss is time. It will take me two days to duplicate the work. A copy of the cipher code also was taken, but that did not matter."

"The letters in my possession have been delivered to the Department of Justice. When they are made public, I assure you, they will create a sensation. They will stop illegal stock transactions both here and in Europe. I cannot talk of the diplomatic aspects now. I have given my word to the Department of Justice."

CONFERENCE ON ADAMSON LAW BY RAILROADS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, Nov. 13.—Representatives of the railroads and their trainmen who will benefit under the Adamson eight hour law gathered here today for the first of a series of conferences to discuss ways and means for the application of the statute. The meeting was described by representatives of the railroads as one for formal discussion only, with the purpose of determining whether both sides view the law in the same light. Neither side understood the explanation or how it was to be applied. It was said and it was with the purpose of finding some common ground for application if the United States supreme court decides the law is constitutional in the suits brought by several roads to determine this fact.

Elisha Lee headed the conference committee of managers which represents the roads in the discussions beginning today. W. G. Lee, A. B. Garretson, W. B. Stone and W. S. Carter, heads of the four trainmen's brotherhoods were among the men's representatives.

Immigrant Once Hungry, Feeds 1,000 As Wedding Event

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, Nov. 13.—Twenty years ago Max Gottschneider with his wife and baby girl arrived in New York penniless from Volna, Russia. He heeded help from a charitable organization and was given a job as a fur dyer. In return he made a vow that when his daughter should be married, all men who were hungry, as he was then, should be fed.

The immigrant became a prosperous fur dealer and yesterday announced the coming marriage of his daughter to a diamond merchant. He drove to the Hebrew society's headquarters in his limousine and explained that he was ready to keep the vow made a score of years ago. "How many immigrants have you here now?" He asked. He was told about 200.

"Not enough," he declared. "Go out into the neighborhood. I want to feed any number up to 1,000 perhaps more if you can get them." Nearly 1,000 poor were fed at his expense between one p. m. and midnight.

PRESIDENT

MEXICO GETS ATTENTION

Much Concerned Over Membership of House Which Now Seems Divided With 217 Republicans and 212 Democrats—Has Not Considered Question of Altering Cabinet Family

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Nov. 13.—President Wilson was back at his desk in the White House today, after an absence of two months, prepared to take up important foreign problems, which have been held in abeyance pending the election as well as domestic questions. These included the German submarine situation, the Mexican problem, and a number of federal appointments.

The president was expected to consider first the submarine situation which is admittedly serious. A summary of recent developments in German submarine warfare prepared by the state department, was ready to be laid before him and, in addition, he probably soon will confer again with Ambassador Gerard on the situation.

The president has not even considered the question of changes in his cabinet, according to administration officials, who characterize premature reports that he had decided on such changes. It is possible, however, that one or two cabinet officers may not remain after March 4.

Although Mr. Wilson was tired out when he returned to the white house last night he was up early today and had breakfast before eight o'clock. Immediately afterward he began reading a huge stack of mail accumulated during his trip to Williams town, Mass.

The president asked first for the latest information in the political makeup of the house of representatives in the Sixty-Fifth Congress. He was told indications from the present returns were that the Republicans would have 217 members and the democrats 212, with six members of other parties. The president was understood to be much concerned over the makeup of the next house, chiefly because of its effect on the selection of the speaker and chairmanships of committees which he is anxious to see in the hands of democrats. As far as legislation is concerned, it was said today, Mr. Wilson is confident that most measures to be proposed by him would gain the support of enough republicans to carry them through.

Mr. Wilson continued to refuse to make any comment on the election pending the receipt of formal word from Mr. Hughes and the republican national committee conceding his reelection.

After a brief stay in Washington the president may go away for a rest before congress convenes. He will make no definite plans, however, until he has got in thorough touch with official business here and learned whether the submarine or Mexican situations require his presence.

Secretary Lansing planned to confer with President Wilson today on recent submarine attacks on vessels carrying Americans and on the Mexican situation.

While officials admit that the submarine situation is filled with grave possibilities, no action will be taken until further reports have been received. It was said today that the state department proving that Germany's pledges have been violated.

In case there are any changes in President Wilson's cabinet it was understood that among those who would be seriously considered are Harry A. Garfield, president of Williams college and a son of former President James A. Garfield; Samuel L. Seabury, the defeated democratic candidate for governor of New York and Vance C. McCormick, chairman of the democratic national committee.

There have been many reports circulated regarding changes in the cabinet, but officials in close touch with the President declared today that it is almost certain that he will urge all the present members of the cabinet to remain at their posts and changes are not expected unless members themselves desire to quit the official family.

It is considered possible, however, that one or more members of the cabinet may resign for personal reasons. Secretary McAdoo has been frequently mentioned as one member likely to resign and Representative Glass of Virginia, chairman of the house banking and currency committee has been suggested for his post. It was stated definitely today that Mr. McAdoo can remain in the President's cabinet as long as he desires, and it was denied that he has offered his resignation.

In case there is a vacancy on the supreme court, Attorney General Gregory, Secretary Lane or Senator Walsh of Montana would be considered first for the appointment.

Secretary Redfield, Secretary Baker and Secretary Daniels have also been mentioned as members of the cabinet who might desire to quit public life but it was stated. (Continued on Page 9, Col. 4.)

PRISONERS GET "DOPE" FROM COUGH REMEDY

Sheriff Finds Drug Victims' Novel Source of Supply.

Many so-called cough cures offered to the public are heavily loaded with chloroform, opium, morphine, codeine and other narcotic drugs to such an extent that several prisoners of the Suffolk county jail at Boston got the drugs their appetite craved by pretending to the sheriff that they had severe coughs, according to the Boston Post of June 7, 1916.

These dangerous habit-forming drugs do have a temporary effect on the cough but they do not have a lasting effect and soon the cough comes back worse than ever. Doctors sound a warning against these preparations. A safe sane treatment for a cough or cold is Father John's Medicine because it is guaranteed free from any of these dangerous drugs or alcohol and has a record of more than sixty years' success as a family remedy in thousands of homes. Because of its wholesome purity it is safe for all the family. It soothes the throat and breathing passages, relieves the cough by getting at the cause, drives out the impurities by means of its gentle laxative effect and builds up renewed strength because of its wholesome food elements.

FARM BUREAU TO MEET GRANGE AT CENTRAL CITY

The second meeting in the educational campaign for members to the Licking County Farm Bureau Association will be held in the Grange hall at Central City, Friday night, November 17th at 7:30 o'clock. Memberships at a $1.00 per year to the Farm Bureau Association are coming in from all parts of the county in response to the application cards which were mailed out by the organization committee of which W. C. Hall is chairman. One prominent farmer who had been given a dozen cards, reported that he had signed up memberships to that number and he was given a dozen more. It is necessary to obtain 431 members before the association will be entitled to federal and state aid and the services of a county agriculturist's advisor. Meetings similar to the one to be held at Central City next Friday night, will be held in other parts of the county.

MME. CULP MAY USE CANE; BROKE FOOT IN ACCIDENT

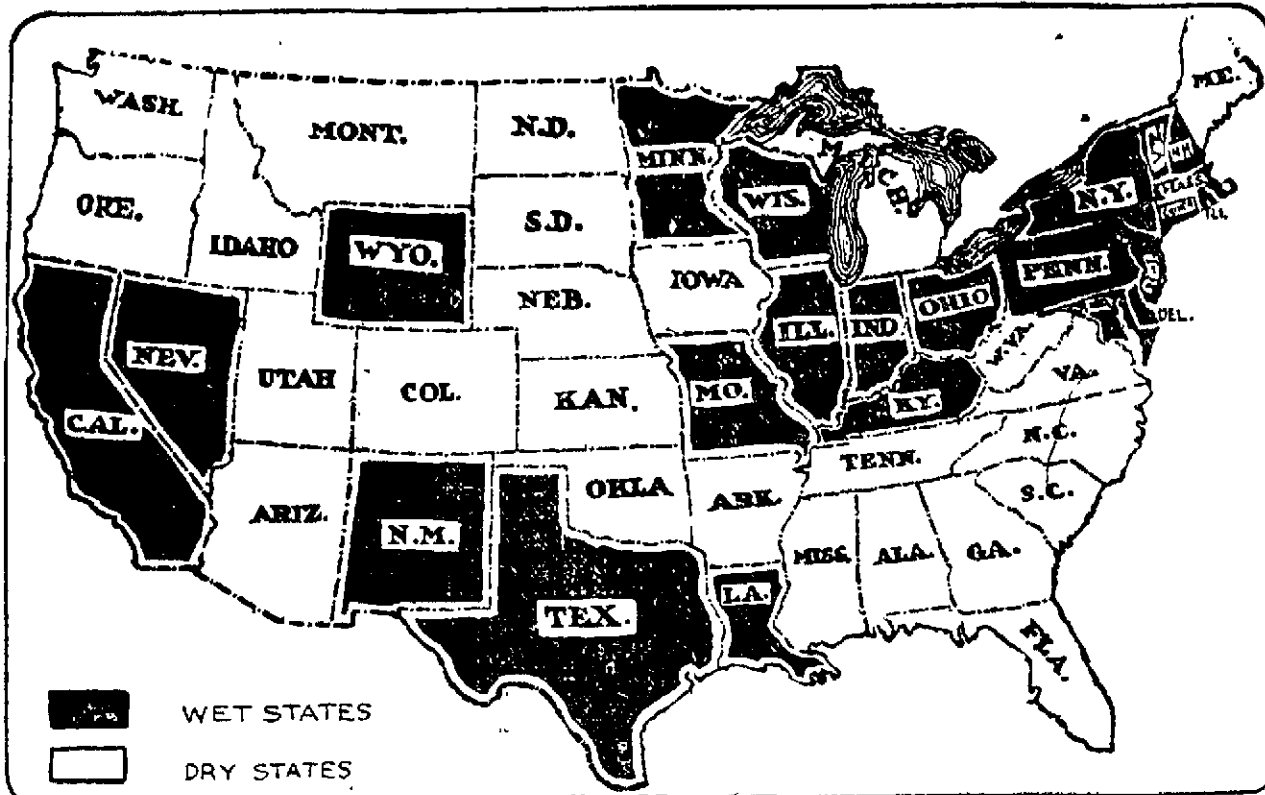

Mme. Julia Culp, the Dutch lieder singer, who arrived in America from Holland the first week of November, has been obliged to cancel many of her engagements in Europe because of an accident she received in Holland. It was on the occasion of the special review of the troops and Mme. Culp was one of the guests of honor with the Queen Wilhelmina and many other celebrities. As she stepped out of the carriage an officer approached to escort her to the seats reserved for the guests of honor and, in alighting, she tripped, breaking her foot.

Her manager, Antonia Sawyer, has just received a letter from her saying that she fears she may be obliged to use a cane for some time. The accident will not interfere with Mme. Culp's work in America, and her first concert will be given in Philadelphia tonight.

EIGHT SPEEDERS PAY FINES FOR LAW VIOLATION

Justice D. M. Jones was called from his Sunday dinner to pass judgment on a number of automobile drivers, charged with a violation of the state road laws which regulate the speed of all vehicles and motors. The attorney general states that he is determined to break up the practice of speeding on the highways and has appointed special constables all over the state. They have been advised to take violators direct before a justice of the peace. Sunday special constables were on the road between this city, Granville and Columbus, the National road between Columbus and Zanesville, the Jacksonville and Hanover road.

The special constables arrested eight speeders yesterday on the different roads and brought them to this city. A number wished to put up cash bond or have the constables take the number of their machine, promising to appear in court today but there was nothing doing in that line and all appeared before Justice D. M. Jones who fined them $5 and the costs each. All paid willingly with the exception of one man who entered a vigorous protest but it did him no good.

Machine owners state that the limit of 20 miles per hour on county highways is not enough and there is but little element of danger. They claim the limit should be at least 30 miles where there is no congestion. This matter it is said will be taken up by auto clubs over the state at the next meeting of the legislature.

In the meantime be careful when out on the highways that a motor cop is not lurking in the vicinity if you wish to speed up, for the state department vows that it will arrest anyone they catch "hitting it up" at over twenty miles per.

SHEELER SAYS HE WAS ROBBED OF $7 AND SHOES

A man giving his name as Henry Sheeler, today is in the hospital suffering from a scalp wound, while police are searching for an alleged assailant, who according to Sheeler, struck him on the head with a brick, stole $7 from his pockets and then relieved him of his shoes.

Sheeler was found wandering in a dazed condition late Saturday night by a man named Duffy. He was in his stocking feet and blood was streaming from a wound in the back of his head. Duffy turned the man over to the police who removed him to the City hospital.

Police today were inclined to discredit the story told Saturday night by Sheeler, as this morning his account of the holdup was changed. Several suspects are under police surveillance and may be arrested in connection with the case.

Sheeler's injury is not considered serious.

HOME COMING

FOR DENISONIANS IS PLANNED FOR NEXT SATURDAY'S GAME WITH O. W. U.

Endowment Committee and Pan-Hellenic Council Will Meet in Granville on That Day.

(Special to Advocate.)

Granville, Nov. 12.—Saturday, Nov. 18, is to be marked as a milestone on Denison's long and interesting journey of progress—for "it is to be a great day both for the graduate and the undergraduate of this institution," according to the opinion of President C. W. Chamberlain, who has been active in formulating plans for this first real Denison home-coming. On this day will be played the big Wesleyan-Denison game on Beaver Field; there will be meetings of the Alumni Endowment committee, of the Pan-Hellenic Council, and of the Alumni who will be lunch in Shepherdson Commons. Of course in the estimation of the fans, the important event of the day is the football game with Ohio Wesleyan, our greatest rival, and the winning of this game, as the Denisonian justly remarks, is the one thing most desired on the football calendar. Let all friends of Denison plan to come back for the week-end and help root for the Big Red team.

Prof. Karl Eschmann, director of Denison Conservatory, was one of the speakers at the Ohio Music Teachers' convention in Columbus Friday.

Through a typographical error, announcement was made in the Saturday's Advocate that Dr. Panim the Persian instead of the celebrated Russian was to deliver a lecture in Recital Hall this evening at 8 o'clock on the topic "From Nihilism to the Christian Faith." Dr. Panim has been giving a month's lectures in Toledo and his coming to Granville has been arranged for by friends of Denison who feel that he has a message of importance to the community. The lecture is free and a general invitation is extended.

Beta Theta Pi entertained Saturday evening with an informal taffy pull, the following guests: Misses Ruth Tipton, Ruth Eldridge, Louise Cobbs, Sara Taylor, Edith Wilson, Marion Kendall, Lillian Eldridge, of Shepherdson college, and Misses Dorcas, the Board, Martha Fulton, Marjorie Linwood, Dorothy Edmiston of Newark, Miss Brillhart chaperoned.

Beta Theta Pi had the following guests for Sunday dinner: Mrs. R. W. Soule, Miss Ethel Brillhart, Prof. Latourette.

Sigma Chi entertained the following guests at dinner Sunday: Mrs. Moore, Miss Mary Sanford of Strick, O.

Mrs. Margaret Halderman has gone to Chicago to spend a fortnight in visiting relatives.

Mrs. William Showman returned yesterday to her home on North street from a two weeks' visit with her sister in Kansas City.

Tuesday tomorrow, is to be devoted to work for wounded soldiers in Europe. Every woman in the community is expected at some hour during the day, if only for half an hour's session.

Dr. J. W. Rohrer is spending a few days at the home of his brother, Rev. Freeley Rohrer in Greenfield.

Denison was in the public eye as far back as 1852. The Ohio State Journal of July 25th, 1862, said: "A convention of Denison from the different parts of the state has been in session in this city for a day or two past, to consider the removal of Granville College to Lebanon. The convention adjourned yesterday afternoon without coming to any decision."

Many were the leaders throughout the state who felt that a college situated in Granville was hopeless, for this little sequestered village was in such an inaccessible location. They seemed to be on the point of transplanting the college to some location more centrally located, but the tide turned and the discussion resulted in an attempt to raise $20,000 and retain the college in this town of Granville.

So now we in 1916 add our word of thanks to those brave men who felt the inspiration and kept the old college on this hill.—The Denisonian.

HELEN GARRITY CAST IN LEAD LOCAL MOVIE

More scenes are being taken today in the local movie play, "Twins School Days," and the cast has been increased by the addition of a number of local amateur actors.

The principal role, Mamie, is taken by Helen Garrity, who makes a charming little school girl. The heroine screens well and her conception of the part has been highly complimented by the director of the play. She is a pronounced brunette with long curly black hair and shows up splendidly on the films. When the picture is exhibited at the Auditorium in the near future her many friends will be pleased with the talent displayed by Mamie.

Walter Rauck plays opposite to Miss Garrity and has the character of Roy. Mr. Rauck also acts his part to perfection and having had much previous stage experience, is entirely at home in the pictures.

Others in the cast are Miss Blanch Trost, who makes a charming little school girl, Frances Bausch, Helen Caldwell, Zelma Holsley, Gladys Kettering, Mrs. Winter, Arthur Willert, Ralph E. Lipscomb, A. J. Dennison, Leroy Masser, W. J. Schopen and others, besides a large number of school children.

Scenes are being taken of a number of residences, business places and schools. There will also be a country scene, school children at play and many interesting points about the city.

SUFFERED INJURY WORKING FOR CITY; DEATH RESULTED

William Shaw, 63, died at his home 351 Buckingham street Saturday evening at 5:20 o'clock as the result of injuries suffered a week ago. Mr. Shaw has been employed at the Municipal Light plant and one day last week he helped to unload a car load of coal. Later in the day he became ill and when a physician was called he was found to have suffered a rupture of the bowels. Death resulted from the injury.

The deceased was born May 13, 1853, six miles east of Newark and has spent all his life in this vicinity. He is survived by his wife, four sons, Samuel of Newark, Joseph of Ft. Wayne, Tillman of Newark and Simeon of Logansport, Ind., two daughters, Miss Lattie Shaw of Ft. Wayne, and Mrs. Joseph Gabe of Newark.

The funeral services will be held at the United Brethren church on East Main street on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, the pastor, Rev. A. B. Cox officiating. Interment will be made at the cemetery at Bowling Green.

RELAY RAILS ON ELEVENTH ST. FOR NEW PAVEMENT

A gang of workmen today were tearing up the old street car rails on Eleventh street between Raccoon creek bridge and West Main street, and laying new rails. The asphalt paving being laid in Eleventh street at this point and with weather permitting, this section of the street will be finished in about three weeks.

Work on the street from the bridge north to Church street is held up on account of a delay in the arrival of special work, which according to the city engineer, will not be shipped from Johnstown, Pa., before December 15.

Engineer Wells said that cold weather would not delay the completion of the asphalt street, only rain or snow.

EXPENSE BILLS MUST BE FILED BY NEXT FRIDAY

The candidates at last Tuesday's election will have ten days from that date in which to file their expense accounts. There is a penalty attached for those who neglect to perform that duty. Jesse T. T. Reese, defeated candidate for county recorder on the Republican ticket, was the first to file his expense account.

KESPERT HELD TO GRAND JURY UNDER $500 BOND

John Edward Kespert, aged 27 years, former employee of the Adams Express Company, who was brought to Newark Saturday noon by Chief Sheridan from Cincinnati to answer to a charge of embezzling $605, was arraigned late Saturday afternoon before Mayor Higbee.

Kespert entered a plea of guilty and was held to the grand jury in the sum of $500.

According to Kespert's story to the police, he stole the money to pay off his debts, gave his mother $75 and then boarded a train for the west. In St. Louis, he said he was held up and robbed of $380 and then returned to his home in Cincinnati.

Police say Kespert claims he was starting for Newark to give himself up when arrested, but the Cincinnati police claim he tried to make "his getaway" through a rear door at his home, when they went to make the arrest.

Sunday School Class Spent Day On Lampton Farm

Saturday morning 20 boys of the Busy Bee Sunday school class of the Maple Ave. C. U. Sunday school, each with a broom handle carried on the shoulder, marched from the church on Maple avenue to the Ohio Electric station, where they boarded the 9:45 car for Clay Lick.

In charge of Rev. P. O. Ortt, they took a cross country hike, landing at the home of George, Mary and Barbara Lampton, near Carmel church, where dinner awaited the boys. The boys did ample justice to the dinner and in the afternoon, lunch was available at all hours, five gallons of milk and a bushel of apples being consumed. At 3:00 o'clock, after a pleasant day on the farm the boys were conveyed to Clay Lick to board the car for home. They gave three rousing cheers for their hosts and agreed that they were deeply indebted to them for their entertainment.

Spain's Royal Palace.

From one who paid a visit not long ago to King Alfonso at Madrid comes a wonderful account of his palace. It is bigger than either Buckingham palace or Windsor and is rarely inhabited by less than 2,000 people. On entering the palace one sees some 150 lackeys ditting about in different directions, and at the foot of the stairs and on the landings stand halberdiers in their uniforms of white and black and ticorn hats. The lift that carries you to the upstairs apartments is all rose colored brocade and cut glass—quite glorious within. The room where their majesties receive the diplomatic corps is noted for the beauty of the blue silk walls and clock with a life size figure of "Time" carrying the earth—a globe which forms the clock. Here are four superb chandeliers of rock crystal, set in gold filigree. The works of art include two beautiful pictures by Goya. Queen Mary Louise of Parma and Charles IV. of Bourbon. The state dining room is famous for its frescoes and tapestries and Sevres vases that are not less than six feet high—the loveliest examples of blue china.—London Gentleman.

Mud Roads of Manchuria.

Northern Manchuria possesses no roads, as they are known in this country—that is, "made" roads. However, there are fairly well defined routes through the country from village to village by which the trade carts travel. From April to November these so called roads are practically impassible, sometimes even for men on horseback, owing to the peculiar qualities of the Manchurian mud, and in this part of the year nearly all traffic moves by water. For this reason most of the inhabitants and nearly all the important towns and villages in northern Manchuria are found beside the large rivers and their more important tributaries. The autumn and winter, however, when the ground is frozen, are the seasons for moving the great bean and grain harvests. Then the land routes are congested with countless thousands of Chinese two wheeled carts, drawn by three to nine ponies, three abreast, taking the products of the farms to Harbin and returning to the villages with kerosene, piece goods and articles of metal manufacture.

Farms on Edge.

What might be described as farms on edge are the famous rice terraces upon the mountain slopes of the Philippine Islands. These farms, in the shape of ribbons miles and miles long, cover sides of ranges that in this country would be considered about right for goat pastures, so steep and rugged are they. The patient island farmers cultivate every foot of them, however, the ledges extending high toward the summit and covering immense areas. The grade of the terraces is skillfully designed to carry the water down the mountain side without waste and without washing away the land, so that the crops are benefited by a rainfall which would otherwise wash away all the soil from the rocks.—St. Nicholas.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action, yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

PRACTICAL HEALTH HINT.

- Common Colds.
- Two classes of common colds are recognized by Dr. F. P. Smart in a Virginia medical review.
- The infectious cold gradually passes to the entire family. The vasomotor cold is due primarily to exposure—exposure which, by lowering resistance in the head, permits the normal scavenger germs of the nose to become parasitic. When the feeling that a fresh cold is coming on is experienced the simplest preventive is a little vigorous exercise or a rapid succession of deep respirations. This is often effective, but if the vasomotor cold is not promptly broken up it develops the symptoms and dangers of the other class, except the infection. The treatment suggested as probably the best includes a brisk purge, a hot foot bath at night, a glass of hot lemonade, ten grains of Dover's powder, keeping well covered and late morning rising.
- The complications liable to attend the cold that has become established are often overlooked or neglected and require special treatment to keep the nasal passages freely drained and ventilated and to provide for the removal of the irritating products.

The Old Family Order.

My own childhood, as it stretches out behind me, is punctuated at regular intervals by furiously busy Saturdays and shining, immaculate Sundays. The weekly bath was a fixed institution—no one ever went to church without it—but the problem of bathing eleven boisterous and occasionally rebellious children and getting everybody finished and out of the way by 9 o'clock at night made Saturday an interesting day for mother. Considering the difficulties we had to contend with, I think we were a very industrious family about bathing. In the first place, the reservoir on the kitchen range had to be filled thirteen separate times. It was the unvarying rule that each member of the family old enough to carry a pail must bring water from the cistern in the woodshed for the one next in turn. It was a sad day for the wretch who used all the water and forgot to fill the reservoir. Then the tub had to be emptied each time by dipping out the water until it was light enough to carry.—Atlantic.

Burying an English Soldier.

'Any soldier below the rank of sergeant who dies a natural death while in barracks has an escort of thirteen men and a sergeant at his funeral. While a lieutenant is entitled to forty men, in the charge of a brother officer of similar rank. The same applies to second lieutenants. Three rounds of "blank" rifle ammunition are fired for every rank from private to colonel. A brigadier general is given eleven guns and a full general seventeen guns. The body of a field marshal is saluted by nineteen guns. On the way to the place where the body is to be interred the "Dead March" and very solemn tunes are played, but on the way back lively tunes of any description may be played.—London Standard.

ESTABLISHED IN 1920

The Supreme Court and The Presidency.

"Should the Supreme court be a stepping stone to the White House?" was the caption of an Advocate editorial Nov. 1st. Answering the question, this newspaper argued that the nation's highest court should be far above party politics, and that the election of Mr. Hughes would be a temptation for members of the court having the Presidency in mind to be swayed in their judgment of important issues coming before the court for final decision.

If any other newspaper touched upon that point during the campaign the fact did not come to our notice but to us the idea appeared to be worth considering and it was therefore with some satisfaction that we read the following editorial in last Saturday's New York Times, which by many is regarded as the country's greatest newspaper. The Times said:

"The defeat of Mr. Hughes settles one matter of more vital and further-reaching moment than any temporary policies of politics. It settles the question of the Supreme Court out of politics. It means that the Justices of the Supreme Court are to regard themselves as incapable of political ambitions. They are to be judges and nothing else. The intrigues of politics, the clamor of conventions, are to disturb no member of that great court in his interpretation of the Constitution and the laws. The temptation is removed to swerve from calm impartiality, to make decisions for popular effect, to bend the law to the popular emotion of the hour.

"On Mr. Justice Hughes no such imputation rested. It was a grave mistake, however, for him to leave the bench and take the nomination. There have been sporadic cases of Justices of the Supreme court who allowed themselves to receive votes in political conventions. Mr. Justice McLean made a practice of it for more than a generation. But the old and sound tradition is the other way. So is the general feeling. If Mr. Hughes had been elected, who knows what perils invitation to some adroit politician of the future his success would have been? The politics of inferring the poison of politics into minds that should be solely judicial would be not only a possibility, but a probability.

"The Supreme court must be free from any suspicion of sacrificial justice to amity. The popular decision in the case of Mr. Hughes is a guarantee that the freedom of the Supreme Court from playing in the galleries, from political entanglement, is to be maintained. The memorable precedent has now been established. It will not be broken."

Senator Pomerene.

Alfred Pomerene, re-elected to the United States Senate from Ohio, who has stood shoulder to shoulder with President Wilson, will be in the next congress not only the senator from Ohio but "the senator from the North."

The Washington correspondent of the Ohio State Journal points out the fact that the voters last Tuesday wiped out the Democratic senatorial landmarks in the north and only Senator Pomerene and Senator Leas of Illinois remain as senators representing the Democracy in the east and west territories, extending from New York to Mississippi river.

William F. Campbell was born before the Revolution in New York. Senator Martin was born in New York.

Printing the News.

The Advocate takes no little pride in the fact that it did not participate in the guessing contest in which nearly all of the metropolitan newspapers were competitors last Wednesday morning. The Advocate was one of the few newspapers that did not announce the election of Justice Hughes. This newspaper was content to publish the news in its several extra and regular editions but relying upon the Associated Press, the Advocate made no positive announcement of the result until 10:29 Thursday night, five minutes after the Associated Press made the declaration in California that Wilson had won.

Ledger is Right.

In view of Mr. Wilson's re-election the following editorial from the Philadelphia Public Ledger is interesting.

"The ledger shows that the American people are not so easily deceived, that they cannot be arbitrarily classed into groups and factions, and delivered to any candidate at the bidding of demagogues, and it demonstrates beyond question that the national honor has not been sullied by the spirit of selfish and sordid commercialism."

Isn't that splendid? Isn't it true? However it is perhaps only fair to the Ledger to say that the foregoing paragraph was printed early last Wednesday morning when the G. O. P. was nappy in the belief that Justice Hughes had been elected to the presidency.

Forty Years Ago.

(Philadelphia Record.)

On the night of the election in 1870, when it was evident that the election was very close and Mr. Tilden was probably elected, Senator Zach Chandler, of Michigan, telegraphed to Republican papers in every part of the country: "Claim everything."

Democratic House had been elected in 1874. Grant had refused the use of troops in Mississippi, and it was evident that the Reconstruction policy was breaking down. But under the semi-military and semi-carpenter governments of the Southern States, with returning boards created primarily to reverse the local returns and manufacture Republican majorities, it was the easiest thing in the world to create contests. It was very generally believed that the Republican Senate had arranged to create a disputed election by rescinding the twenty-second joint rule, which covered the counting of the electoral vote, and the Senate was left free to defeat any action the House might take.

The returns from three States were in dispute, owing to different returns from different election tribunals. Hayes had to get every disputed vote in order to win, and it was quite certain that he wasn't entitled to any of them. It was evident that the two branches of Congress could never agree on the votes to be counted and the Democrats were in no mood to be balked of the victory they believed they had won.

There was more than a possibility of civil violence. "Marse Henry" Watson was calling for 100,000 armed Democrats to seat Tilden. A few years after the event Arthur Pue Gorman visited Mr. Tilden at Graystone, and conversation was not long in getting back to 1876. Mr. Tilden asked Mr. Gorman what he thought he (Tilden) should have done. Gorman promptly replied that he ought to have appealed to the Democrats to seat him in the Presidency. Mr. Tilden replied: "I might have done that earlier in life." Mr. Tilden had reached an age at which a man shrinks from violence.

But the Grant administration anticipated violence and prepared for it. Troops were sent to Washington. Brigadier General Randall S. Mackenzie, who had no politics, and would obey any order, was recalled from New Mexico and put in command of the troops at the capital. The commanders of the military divisions were confidentially asked to tell the Secretary of War whose orders they would take if there were a dispute as to which man was President.

Mr. Randall of Philadelphia, understood perfectly the country was on the verge of civil war, and he felt that a sacrifice of a party advantage was a smaller evil than that he forced the bill for the re-election of the Democratic House. But at the time it was assumed universally that Justice David Davis would be one of the members of the Tribunal. He was the only non-partisan on the Supreme bench, and if he had gone on the Commission it would have stood seven Democrats, seven Republicans and Davis, who would have had the casting vote.

Justice Davis was not anxious to take this responsibility, and the Illinois Legislature, being then deadlocked over the election of John A. Logan, the Senatorship was offered to him and he took it. Justice Bradley was put on the Commission. No more intelligent and honorable man could be found in the United States than the members of that Commission, and yet every man of them, on every issue, voted on the evidence according to his party alliance, and everything was decided by lot.

To the everlasting honor of the Democratic party, and to the whole country, peace was preserved, even when there was a disputed election and the man who almost certainly was not elected was made President.

It was a supreme triumph of patriotism over partisanship, of order over anarchy, of peace over war. It was a lesson that will never be forgotten, and it is a lesson that we should never forget.

Woman in Congress.

(Pittsburgh Gazette Times.)

Hats off to Miss Jeannette Rankin of Montana. Congress—Congresswoman Rankin elected from Montana. She is the first of her sex to gain the distinction of election to the national House, though not the first woman to be chosen to an American legislative body. She has blazed the trail that may become a path and finally a road over which will pass many women to seats that have been occupied by the great men of the nation. Fortuitous is this pioneering. Never again, perhaps, after the first Monday of December, 1917, will the House of Representatives be the same as it has been since the birth of the nation. The congressional viewpoint will have a new slant; the influence of one earnest, determined woman upon 434 colleagues is bound to be considerable. A new courtesy will become enshrined. It will be harder to object in some cases and impossible to prevent an objection in others. The last word on any question will have a permanent custodian, if she care to exercise woman's right. And, after examining a portrait of Representative-elect Rankin, we are inclined to believe she will never yield a right; that she will never exact a privilege that is not justly hers. She has a good face; there is strength and courage in it. Evidently she believes in herself and in the mission of women to take part in the large affairs of life and government. She may now swing enough votes to get the Susan B. Anthony amendment through Congress, but it's a bet she will have it voted on. She will be on the job when the Speaker takes his seat and no bridge or plank tea will attract her so long as there is work to be done in the House. There may be a bit of feigned embarrassment at first over the proper method of referring to her, but Miss Rankin's presence will change the whole order. Instead of "the gentleman from So-and-So," "From the beginning Congress will yield deference to its woman member. Whether or not the innovation proves happy remains to be seen. We believe Miss Rankin will reflect credit upon herself, her state and the country. Give her a chance.

Plants That Give Heat.

(St. Nicholas Magazine.)

We do not, as a rule, think of plants as giving heat, yet at certain times some flowers show an astonishing rise of temperature. Most remarkable in this respect are certain kinds of Arum. Just at the opening of the flower, in these cases, there is a great liberation of heat; this is due to the fact that the respiration, or breathing, is at such times very vigorous. Some very interesting experiments have been carried out in connection with these Arums by means of placing a thermometer just inside the spathe. One of the most remarkable cases was that of a species growing on the Mediterranean coast, and known as Arum italicum. The temperature of the air was 60 degrees at the time of the experiment. That inside the spathe was 110 degrees! (At that time the blossoms, which when expanded are practically scentless, gave out a fragrance suggestive of wine. It is said that plants of this type are particularly common in Mexico.

President Re-Elected.

(Ohio State Journal.)

The latest is that Wilson is re-elected. The margins are so slight that the result held aloof. But now it seems final, so far as the returns are concerned. There will no doubt be an effort made to so confuse the returns as to call for a recount, with all its legal and technical difficulties. It is to be hoped it will not go to this length. We don't want another Hayes-Tilden controversy, and yet it is possible to bring one on, although the returns indicate a positive result. If California, New Mexico and North Dakota go for Wilson, which now seems quite certain, he is re-elected, and a calm, nonpartisan view of the situation would so conclude. However, no one should be satisfied with anything but the truth.

Votes for Women.

(Columbus Dispatch.)

The magnificent stand for progress by the suffrage states of the West where women have longest had the right to vote, as against the cold reaction of the male voters of the East, comes as a benediction. All doubt as to women's right to participate equally in shaping the destinies of this country, and that such will be nobly used, has been dissipated.

The Dispatch, which only waited to be convinced now gladly enlists actively for the war for the franchise to women of Ohio and the nation, at the earliest moment and by the most direct means.

Wilson and Hughes.

Having been a 100 per cent. Governor, a 100 per cent. Justice of the Supreme Court and a 100 per cent. candidate for the Presidency, Mr. Hughes can now become a 100 per cent. lawyer again. Truth compels the sad mission that in this capacity he is likely to prove a more striking success than as a political campaigner. As a lawyer Mr. Hughes has Woodrow Wilson beaten ten miles. As a broad-minded statesman the President has the legalist outdistanced about 1000 miles.—Philadelphia Record.

The Busy Censor.

One of the most engrossing by-products of the war in France, is the struggle carried on, utterly without quarter, between Mr. Clemenceau, the famous editor of L'Homme Enchaîné, on the one side, and the French press censor on the other. Mr. Clemenceau has tried every device. First, of all his articles, followed by one with just a headline, followed by one or more blank columns representing the censor's work, with Mr. Clemenceau's signature at the foot. Later, the headlines having evidently become too much for the censor, these, too were suppressed, and the signature was the sole indication of what might have been. Generally, however, the article is just scored with blank spaces, and each blank space affords Mr. Clemenceau an opportunity for yet another attack, more scathing than any that preceded it.—Christian Science Monitor.

Prohibition.

How much progress prohibition sentiment has made in the last four years cannot be determined until complete returns from Tuesday's election are in, but in one state at least a signal victory was achieved by the "drys," a victory in one sense more important than an original voting out of the saloon. In Colorado, already prohibition, the people voted on a proposed amendment to the law intended to permit the manufacture of beer within the state and its sale in original packages to consumers. The proposition was defeated, according to a dispatch from Denver. This confirms the original judgment of the people after a trial of prohibition. The question may be considered settled in the Continental State, and the result of this election likely will put a quietus on efforts at tinkering with the prohibition laws of other commonwealths. * * *—Pittsburgh Gazette Times.

The Advocate's LIMERICK POT

To be honest, to be kind—to earn a little and to spend a little less, to make upon the whole a family happier for his presence, to renounce when that shall be necessary and not be embittered, to keep a few friends but these without capitulation—above all, on the same grim condition to keep friends with him—here is a task for all that a man has of fortitude and delicacy.—Robert Louis Stevenson.

APPETITE AND HEALTH

Loss of appetite is a sure sign of ill health. Those who take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People as a tonic invariably say that their improvement began with a noticeable increase in the appetite. When you are sick and your vitality is low your appetite fails. Nothing tastes good. You take no pleasure in your meals. Under such circumstances good digestion is impossible. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills tone up the entire system, the blood is enriched and good red blood is essential to normal digestion. The glands that secrete the digestive fluids are strengthened, not merely stimulated, and you once more enjoy a good appetite. Looking forward pleasantly to meal-time is the first sign of returning health, strength and vitality.

What to eat then becomes a problem and it is solved by the diet book that the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., will send you on request. It gives the relative digestibility of different foods, gives the proper diet in various diseases and is a handy book to have.

The price of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is fifty cents per box. Your own druggist sells them or they will be sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price.

Repairing Summer Ravages.
When you, come home from the summer outing, look out for your complexion, and as quickly as possible, repair the ravages of the sun and wind. Cold water should never be used on a sunburned complexion. Wash the face in warm water instead. Then sponge with a simple mixture of rain water, lavender and benzoin. The proportions are three of water one of simple tincture of benzoin and two lavender water. Cucumbers milk is cooling for the sunburned face. Take an ounce of fresh cucumber juice and three ounces of fresh milk. Scald, skim and use. Massage this well into the face after washing. Then wipe the face with a soft towel.

The woman who freckles easily should protect her skin by rubbing a little non-greasy cream once or twice a day and giving it a light dusting of powder after the cream has been well rubbed into the pores. Buttermilk is invaluable for washing the freckled face, and its regular use will entirely remove the freckles and prevent them from reappearing. It is always a mistake to put off the removal of freckles until the end of summer, as the longer they are allowed to remain the more trouble they give when the task of removing them is undertaken.

It is best to start removing them as soon as they are noticed and then to take precautions to prevent them from forming again. The following lotion is excellent for removing light freckles. Four ounces lemon juice, two ounces glycerine, one ounce rose water. Apply to the face several times daily and allow it to dry on the skin.

Our Boys and Girls

Children too young to attend school need some entertaining and when the weather does not permit them to stay out of doors long at a time they have to play in the house a good many hours.

One mother tells me that her little girl is easily kept amused with a box of cornmeal, playing with it in somewhat the same way as she would play with sand. Two quartets of the meal with two kitchen spoons of different sizes and several little tin boxes provides amusement indefinitely.

The box of meal is placed on a table, the child sits in a chair before it and is kept busy and happy.

Every Day Etiquette

"I received a wedding announcement and in the lower left hand corner is written: 'At home after July 1st.' What shall I do in response?" asked a housewife anxiously.

Apple butter time on the old homestead!

Revive its memories tonight

The orchard smells sweet and the trees hang low with their luscious fruit, big, red-ripe. 'Tis apple butter time on the old homestead! Will you ever forget it? How mother and Will and all hands pitched in to make this ambrosia of the autumn?

How the choicest and tarest of Baldwins and Pippins and Winesaps were gathered, then washed, peeled and cut into slices—some snowy white, some pink or yellow, some firm, others flaky?

How the big copper kettle, glittering in the sunlight, was filled with apples, and then just the right touch of sugar and spices added; how the mixture was stirred and stirred over a crackling wood fire, such wonderful odors arising that your mouth fairly watered for a taste of it?

And when you did taste it—? Oh, how good it was! Will you ever forget the first helping thickly spread over a slice of brown-crust bread?

Daddy's Bedtime Story

THE TALE OF MR. AND MRS. FOX

[Adapted from Grimm's Fairy Tales.]

WHEN bedtime came daddy told the children a story: "Once upon a time, quite a long, long while ago, there was a sly old fox who wanted to know if his wife really loved him. So he stretched himself out under a bench and pretended to be as dead as a mouse.

"Then Mrs. Fox went up into her room and locked the door. But her maid, the cat, sat by the kitchen fire cooking. Soon as the neighbors heard that the old fox was dead some one came a-tapping at the door. 'Miss Pussy, how do you fare today?' was said.

"The cat went and opened the door, and there stood a young fox. So she said to him: 'I am making some splendid white whey. Will your honor be pleased to stay to dinner?'

"No; thanks,' answered the young fox. 'But how is poor Mrs. Fox?'

"'Alas, Mr. Fox is dead,' replied the cat. 'And Mrs. Fox sits upstairs and weeps her eyes red.'

"Go and tell her,' said he, 'that a young fox wants to marry her.'

"Then the cat went upstairs, tripped, trip, and told Mrs. Fox the message. 'Is he tall and straight, and has he nine good tails?' asked Widow Fox.

"'Alas,' cried the cat, 'he has but one tail!'

"Then I will never have him,' answered the Widow Fox.

"So her maid, the cat, went back downstairs and sent the young fox away.

"Soon afterward some one else knocked at the door. It was another fox that had two tails. But he received no better welcome than the young fox.

"After this came several other foxes till at last one came that had nine tails, just like the sly old fox that lay under the bench pretending to be dead.

"Is this fox also tall and straight as well as the owner of nine tails? Mrs. Fox asked her maid, the cat.

"I am glad to say he is,' answered Miss Pussy.

"When the Widow Fox heard this she jumped up from her chair and cried:

"Now, Pussy, my dear, open windows and doors And bid all our friends at our wedding to meet. And as for that nasty old master of ours, Throw him out of the window, Puss, into the street!"

"But when the wedding feast was all ready, up sprang the old gentleman fox from under the bench. Taking a big club in his front paws, he drove the whole wedding company, together with Mrs. Fox, right out of doors."

The children laughed and clamed for daddy.

THE AUDITORIUM.

"The Pacemakers."

The Auditorium today offers the "Pacemakers" one of the best American Wheel shows sent out by Herik-Kelly and Damsell. The company is said to contain many stars who have appeared in musical comedy and embrace Lillian Smealley, Frances Farr, Montrose and Crawford, Frank Damsell, Many King, Jack Pearl, Harold Whalen and Jack (Mickey) McCabe. A real big headline vaudeville act is carried in La Bergere, unquestionably one of the greatest acts of its kind now on the road. A select chorus of pretty girls, who can sing and dance and who wear elaborate and gorgeous costumes are also seen and altogether Newark show goers are promised one of the best musical wheel shows so far seen in Newark. The sale is always quite large, but there still remains many choice seats and it would be advisable to secure seats in advance, thus avoiding the large crowds at the box office to-night.

This picture is headed by Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne, probably two of the most prominent lovers on the screen. Both have made love before the camera more often, probably, than any pair of co-

The girl kept begging Miss King for a chance to appear in some scenes and finally the star, in desperation, secured a day's work for her as an extra. She laughed at the wrong time and was promptly scored by the director, and, crestfallen, she said to Miss King—"I don't want to be in any more pictures—I find I can't be a queen of the movies, so just will be a queen of the cook stove. What will you have for breakfast?"

With no knowledge of the evil and deceit of the world; sheltered from the troubles and worries of her parents by the protecting watchfulness of the Convent Sisters; suddenly deprived of this protection, and thrust in to a position where deceit and cunning were essential to power—would you be able to rule an over-taxed and already half-rebellious nation?

This is merely one of the many trying problems which confronts dainty little Alice Brady in the new Brady-Made World picture, "The Gilded Cage," which will be the feature at the Alhambra theatre on Wednesday and Thursday.

THE GEM.

The management of the Gem theatre announces the showing for tomorrow afternoon and evening of "The Price He Paid." This photodrama has been endorsed by ministers and social workers throughout the world. It is a practical lesson which every young woman and man should see before they think of marriage.

stars in motion pictures. Their embrace set the season's fashions in embraces and their kisses are the last word in osculatory exercise. They both together with over 600 selected Shakespeare actors and actresses, will be seen at the Auditorium in "Romeo and Juliet" Tuesday and Wednesday.

Never before since Shakespeare penned his immortal story, has the famous balcony scene been visualized with an eye to historical detail and convincing reality, as it is in this wonderful production. Mgr. Fenberg promises that this Metro production will bring Shakespeare to the people as it never has been brought before either by the written word or upon the spoken stage. It is a massive production that cost in the neighborhood of $250,000.00 in 8 super acts and at a great extra expense has been brought to Newark by the Auditorium management who believes in nothing but the best for his patrons. The correct time of showings for this feature will be starting tomorrow afternoon at 2 p. m. Then at 4:15, 6:30 and 8:45 p. m. with price to all 25 cents.

Considerable excitement and interest was manifested on the streets yesterday during the taking of some of the scenes of the Local Talent moving picture, "Twas School Days."

Newark has some good talent and it is only necessary to watch for a few moments this interesting work to appreciate just what talent we have. The leading parts of "Twas School Days" is being taken by Mrs. Helen Garrity as Mammie and Mr. Walter Rouse as Roy, among the others who are taking part are Mrs. Moore, Miss Blanch Trout, Frances Bausch, Helen Caldwell, Gladys Kettering, Zebina Halsey, Mr. Walter Anthony Starr, W. J. Schopen, H. E. Lipscomb, A. J. Dennison and others. All the scenes are laid in Newark and include the parks, public schools, business and residential districts. The production of the picture is under the direction of Edwin Dale of the McHenry Film Corporation, of Akron, Ohio and when completed will be shown at the Auditorium Theatre, November.

ALHAMBRA.

Anita King, the brilliant and clever actress who will be seen at the Alhambra tonight and tomorrow, co-starring with Thomas Meighan in the Jesse L. Lasky production for the Paramount Program of the famous drama, "The Heir to the Hoora," had in her employ, a screen-struck maid. She still has the maid, minus the screen-struck-

WRESTLING FANS WILL SEE ACTION THURSDAY NIGHT

A real high class card has been arranged for Thursday night's wrestling show at the Auditorium, which will bring together Paul Bowser, world's middleweight wrestling champion and Billy Schreiber, "unknown" in the main event and Charles Metro, the "Terrible Turk" of Boston and Al Taft, "Young Gutch" of Columbus, in the semi-final.

The semi-final will be the best ever arranged in this city. Young Gutch, for the past many months has been challenging Bowser in Columbus, but so far has never shown in earnest inclination to meet the champion. He claims he can beat Bowser at his pounds ringside and has plenty of Columbus money to back his assertion.

Supporters of Bowser do not agree with Gutch but then they will have an opportunity to see a night of action for themselves, if the Columbus man can deliver the goods. Gutch appeared in Newark in a preliminary bout shortly after the game was started here last year. He uncorked both speed and roughness, easily winning over a Greek Metro.

Metro is training with Bowser and will make the Columbus man extend himself the limit to win the decision. The claim is being laid for his bout with the "unknown" as he believes Schreiber is sending a good man against him. A great deal can not be said about the "unknown" other than he is reputed to be a tough proposition.

Another good preliminary will be staged as a curtain-raiser to the show which will be the "unknown" as the semi-windup. The ringside seat box opened today and the Auditorium box office will be open for house seats, Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Internal Bathing's Rapid Growth

It is but natural to expect that a relief from consumption and the many ills which it causes which is so effectual and so natural as internal bathing, should quickly make many converts.

But its general use has increased so tremendously in the past few years as to suggest other reasons and these are found in the statement of users that they feel as if made of new the morning after an internal bath.

The elimination of the pernicious and poisonous waste which is ever present in the lower intestine gives nature a chance to work unhindered. And one arises in the morning clear-headed, able, bright, confident and eager for the day's duties.

"Dear Doctor—Your 'Cascade' made a new man of me at the age of 49. I persuaded my wife to use your treatment and today she has better health than ever before. Since the use of 'Cascade' she sleeps better and can walk for hours without fatigue. Painting, especially, can be done with ease. I can eat anything on the bill of fare and drink all beverages. Does not take cold when exposed but weather does not cause oppression."

The "J. B. L. Cascade," the most effective device for internal bathing, is being shown and explained in detail at The Hudson Pharmacy, 221 W. Williams, Prop. 322 Hudson Ave., cor Oak St., Newark, Ohio.

WHERE IS THE FORD?

If it is in the garage for the winter, you are going back and forth in crowded, stuffy street cars. The muggy air is full of germs of cold, catarrh and worse—all of which you take home to your family.

The mouth and nose are places where these germs enter and lodge. You should kill them before they spread their infection through your membranes and through your family.

Wash your mouth and gargle your throat every evening with a glass full of water into which you have put five to ten drops of Hycolorite. It will kill germs promptly.

You can use more if you wish, for it is harmless to you, although many times as strong as peroxide and even carbolic acid. Other germicides are often acid or poisonous or just froth their strength away without killing the germs.

Hycolorite is a sodium hypochlorite solution. A U. S. Government report has been published showing that 130 antiseptics were recently tested in military hospitals of Europe and sodium hypochlorite is declared by the surgeons to be the most economical and efficient antiseptic of them all.

Although many times more powerful than the harmful antiseptics which contain poisons, acids, mercury or dangerous preservatives, Hycolorite is even safer than the weak and ineffective peroxides. It is clean, clear and harmless as water—but powerful. Any druggist can supply Hycolorite in 25 and 50 ct. bottles. General Laboratories, Madison, Wisconsin.

M'Daniels Defeat Lancaster at Wehrle Park on Sunday in Exciting Game; Score, 18-6

The McDaniel footballers yesterday afternoon at Wehrle park, met a surprise party when they ran up against the Lancaster Independents, but by hard consistent playing and working the aerial specialty, overtime succeeded in grabbing the game by an 18-6 score.

The visitors scored their lone touchdown in the first period with 11 minutes of play remaining after seven McDaniel regulars had been replaced by subs. The second string men were largely rugged enough to stand the line smashing of the Lancaster boys who on a steady march down the field placed the ball back of Newark's goal line.

Despite the fact that the McDaniel team was way off color, it played an excellent game, because if it had not the score would have been reversed.

Newark secured the lead in the first quarter when John McArthur, a fullback, played his usual star game for the locals time after time breaking up plays of the opposition while he lead in scoring.

The first half was a see-saw game with neither team having much advantage. Newark secured the lead only to lose it a minute later, when some black and orange jersey would intercept a forward pass, Lancaster, in the second quarter, scored the ball on the "Mack" 10 yard line, only to lose it on a fumble. Then Bliss booted the leather out of danger.

After Bliss' boot of danger, Newark made some nice gains in the first half but could not get away with the forward pass.

Lancaster played a wonderful game in intercepting passes. Its men were fast on getting down the field with the ball and usually threw an arm in its path. In the third period the McDaniel's resorted almost entirely to the aerial route. On the third attempt to get a forward pass, Newark's defense failed. Bliss' boot succeeded in getting a 15 yard pass to Davis. Then McArthur plunged through center for 10 yards and Bliss' boot followed. Newark around right end. Bliss carried the ball on yard for the first down and then McArthur reeled off seven more yards. Bliss' boot followed. Then Bliss passed the ball for 20 yards to McArthur back of the visitors' goal line, for the first touchdown of the game. Bliss' boot followed. The Lancaster after receiving the kick-off failed to advance and was forced to punt. Bliss' boot followed the ball and carried it 20 yards to the 10 yard line. Then two passed failed. John McArthur then on the next play, pulled the Lancaster set and passed to a wide receiver, Smith, for a 10 yard gain. Then James McArthur, two more forward passes failed and then on a third attempt the ball bounced from Jones' arms into the out-of-play zone of Kinkley, the one hand star of the visitors. Kinkley two years ago made the all Ohio high school team but shifted all his playing talent to the box.

STATE DEFEATS INDIANA; TITLE GAME ON NOV. 25

Columbus Nov. 13.—The championship of the Western conference will be decided at Columbus, November 25 by the defeat of Indiana by Ohio State here Saturday, 46 to 7, and North-western triumphing over Iowa 20 to 7. The scarlet and gray eleven and Northwestern, the only undefeated teams in the conference.

Indiana was outplayed in all departments of the game. The dozen new players of the "Hoosiers" seemed to have mapped out were not in evidence because Ohio State had the ball most of the time. The Indiana game was made mostly by the aid of the forward pass.

He proposes letting the membership do as they please, in that they may do hand ball, basketball, volleyball, wrestling, or pursue any of the many other lines of exercise provided for in the gym. Bowser will specialize in wrestling and will teach classes or give private lessons.

In a folder issued by Bowser he makes a strong appeal for health and strength and sound mind and body. His motto is "A healthy body makes a clean mind." He also asks this question: "Fathers and mothers, would you rather your boy smokes a cigarette, lingers around a pool room, or out in the street or would he prefer to be in a gym and a gymnasium with me, studying a strong body?"

With a strong clean body he must have a clean mind. Bowser says that a clean mind is the only way to get a strong body. A system of physical training will strengthen every part of the body.

Bowser has received a complete gymnasium from Pittsburgh and has installed it at the Music Hall. The gymnasium will be opened to the general public for inspection.

BEGIN HOT WATER DRINKING IF YOU DON'T FEEL RIGHT

Says glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast washes out poisons.

If you wake up with a bad taste, bad breath and tongue is coated; if your head is dull or aching; if what you eat sours and forms gas and acid in stomach, or you are bilious, constipated, nervous, sallow and can't get feeling just right, begin inside bathing. Drink before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will flush the poisons and toxins from stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels and cleanse, sweeten and purify the entire alimentary tract. Do your inside bathing immediately upon arising in the morning to wash out of the system all the previous day's poisonous ste, gases and sour bile before putting more food into the stomach.

To feel like young folks feel; like you felt before your blood, nerves and muscles became loaded with body impurities, get from your pharmacist a quarter pound of limestone phosphate which is inexpensive and almost tasteless, except for a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant.

Just as soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and freshening, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. Men and women who are usually constipated, bilious, headachy or have any stomach disorder should begin this inside bathing before breakfast. They are assured they will become real cranks on the subject shortly.

FINE PROGRAM
OFFERED NEWARK
BY MUSIC CLUB

For years it has been the custom of a few music lovers of Newark and surrounding villages to go to Columbus for high class concerts. To do this entails additional expense and a long comfortable journey. The above reasons have been sufficient for debating many people about the enjoyment of such entertainment. It is the purpose of the Women's Music Club to give to Newark the same clubs to live money with the additional advantage of hearing them at our own door. A course of greater merit has been planned for the coming season. In order to meet the expense of such a course the season tickets must be sold by subscription. Any person holding a season ticket is entitled to six evening concerts.

The first major concert will be given in the Auditorium theatre on the evening of December 12 by Julia Culp the famous Dutch mezzo-soprano. Madame Culp is the greatest leader singer on the concert stage today.

The second major concert will be given in the Auditorium theatre on the evening of January 18 by the New York Symphony. This orchestra, with Walter Damrosch as its conductor, needs no introduction. Its reputation through the middle west is more extended than that of any other organization of its kind.

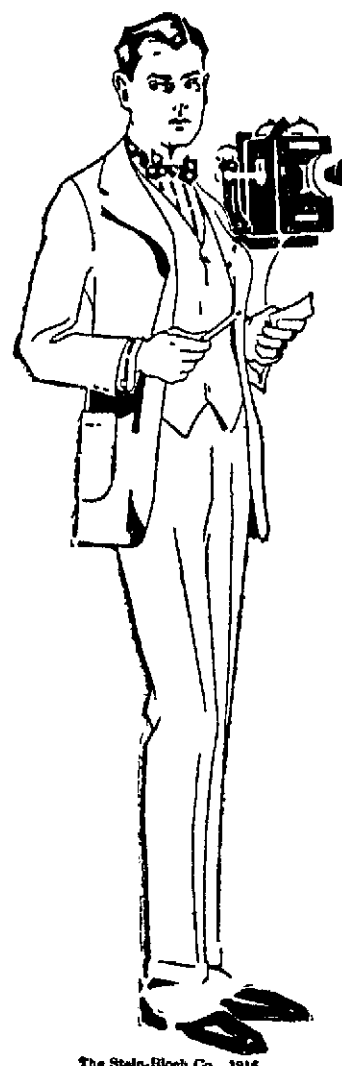

The third major concert will be a joint recital given in the Auditorium on the evening of February 6 by Mr. and Mrs. David Mannes. This concert will be a valuable treat. Mr. and Mrs. Mannes are well known to the Columbus public having appeared there upon several occasions.

Clara Mannes is a pianiste of exceptional ability, a sister of Walter Damrosch, the leader of the New York Symphony. David Mannes is a violinist of equal note each an individual artist, yet their ensemble playing is so perfect that it is like one performer. Together they present an intellectual program that is pure artistry such as no serious student can afford to miss. They are delightful personalities and are so informal in their manner that they dispel across the footlights a charming intimacy which is felt strongly by the audience. They are so sincerely in love with their art that you feel their work for pure joy. Their efforts along philanthropic lines in New York City has been notable. Mr. Mannes is an interesting and delightful lecturer.

These three concerts alone are worth more than the price of admission. In addition to these, three minor concerts will be given, arrangements for which are not fully completed. The first however is to be given by Ralph Soule, tenor, and Corinne Ivez Lockwood mezzo-soprano, both of the faculty of Denison Conservatory. We are happy to announce these artists for many reasons. We are glad to be affiliated with Denison Conservatory. It brings into closer touch with Granville and its student body and we are more than glad to give the students there the opportunity of hearing great artists at home. Hearing great artists is an important part of musical education and heretofore Granville students have journeyed to Columbus for this purpose. Large cities make it possible for their conservatories to have the best. We hope the time is not far distant when we can be so identified with Denison Conservatory that our concerts will be their concerts and can be announced in their prospectus. In this way we feel we may advance the interests of all students who select Denison Conservatory for the pursuit of their musical education.

The second concert will be given by Ralph and Harold McCall, baritone and tenor, Miss Black soprano with Samuel Richard Gaines at the piano. Mr. Gaines has high standing as a composer and teacher, and the fact that he will play the accompaniment for these singers speaks for itself. These artists come to us from Columbus. The dates of these minor concerts and the artists secured for the third will be announced through these columns at a later date.

Six concerts for the sum of $2.50. Season tickets for major concerts may be reserved in one of two ways. Each third row of the entire house will be held for late purchasers of tickets and will be reserved at the Auditorium box office a few days previous to each concert. The remainder of the house will be reserved by mail. Patrons desiring to avail themselves of the mail order system may do so by sending check or money order to the club treasurer, Mrs. John Franklin, 65 West Church street and in return will receive tickets numbered in regular order as checks have been received. Each ticket holder desiring to have his ticket reserved by mail will return his or her ticket fifteen days previous to each concert, stating choice of reservation and seat coupons will be returned at earliest date selected as near requested position as possible. Any further explanation will be cheerfully given by calling the president, Mrs. Harry Hays, Auto phone 3822, or Mrs.

Mrs. Roul Charpentier in wedding gown.

An important social event in New York was the wedding of Miss Alice Douglas, daughter of Mrs. A. M. Douglas of Central Park West, and Mr. Roul Charpentier. After an extended honeymoon the young couple will make their home in Cleveland, Ohio.

But let it be remembered that one of the biggest causes of high prices is the inability of the average man to carry home a paper bag full of groceries.

The fact that people are not afraid of any disease germs does not prove that they would dare admit a breath of pure fresh air into their rooms.

The women's full skirts are now pronounced very beautiful by the people who called them very ugly three years ago.

TURN HAIR DARK
WITH SAGE TEA

Grandma kept her locks dark, glossy and thick with a simple mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grand-mother's treatment, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time, by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

IF BACKACHY
OR KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat less meat and take a glass of Salts to flush out kidneys—Drink plenty water.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.
